APPROVAL DATE:

1. RULES OF THE GAME

- a. The game starts with four cards dealt, forming two hands, one called the Player's hand and the other called the Banker's hand. The point count of each hand is the total value of the cards. Aces count as one, and face cards count as zero. The point count can never exceed nine since only the last digit in the total value of the cards counts. Players can bet on the "Banker's Hand", the "Player's Hand", the "Tie", and optional bonus bets.
- b. The cards shall be dealt according to fixed rules as described in Section e. There are no options regarding drawing the third card for either the Player's hand or the Banker's hand. The hand closest to 9 points shall win and be paid even money. Winning Banker's hand wagers shall be charged up to a 5% commission. If both the Player's and the Banker's hand result in identical totals, it is a tie and neither the Banker's nor the Player's wagers win or lose. Tie wagers are paid eight to one.
- c. Payout Odds:
 - i. Player Bet 1-1
 - ii. Banker Bet 1-2 on hand total value of 6. 1-1 all other hand total values.
 - iii. Tie Bet 8-1
- d. Bonus Bets:
 - i. Emperor Bonus:
 - 1. An optional wager which wins if the hand the player wagers on is either a natural winner or wins by four or more points (non-natural win). This wager may be placed on either the Banker or Player hand, but not both simultaneously. If both hands draw a natural and the result is a tie, the bonus bet is pushed. See payable 1.
 - 2. Koi 7 - An optional wager in which the player wins if the Banker hand wins with a three-card total of 7 and loses on all ties. See payable 1.
 - 3. Frog 6 – An optional wager in which the player wins if the Player hand wins with a three-card total of 6 and loses on all ties. See payable 1.
